

Learn Convo

Bring Education to Everyone

We introduce to you:

Learn Convo

Learn Convo is a platform for spreading educational information across the world.

This platform is useful for providing broader perspectives on education at an international level.

Our Archives

We conducted several online discussions to brainstorm our ideas.

Go watch our new reels!

And we did that!!

Reflections

- During the project, we faced challenges in time management due to our individual busy schedules.
- We also encountered difficulties caused by the time zone differences between Switzerland and Indonesia.

From this project, we learned that learning methods and educational systems around the world differ from one another.
